

Press release

October 26, 2015

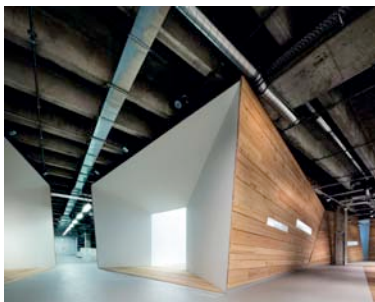

GDC_KreativLAB will be awarded afresh

Architectural office schöne räume belongs to the "winners" of German Design Award 2016

FRANKFURT. Tracing exclusive design trends, presenting and awarding same is the objective of the annual international competition for the award granted by the German Design Council. The German Design Award is one of the re-known design competitions around the globe. Even the nomination is being regarded as an award by international design competence.

"Therefore, we are delighted about announcement of the prestigious award. For a design and planning office of our capacity it cannot be regarded as matter of course", says Ralf Böckle, owner of schöne räume. In close liaison with a three men team, within a former logistics building in Niedernberg he developed a new working environment, an innovative core element for the trading house Gries Deco Company. The spacious KreativLAB provides sufficient room for exchanging information and developing new ideas for forthcoming product lines of DEPOT and ipuro. The modern working environment consisting of specially designed standing tables, like Folding 888, seating areas, work-stations and separate meeting rooms do allow for brainstormings among small groups likewise gatherings of larger groups for presentations. And, last but not least, the design allows for freedom and inspiration of creative work.

The German Design Award is being granted by the German Design Council. Since 2012 a jury of experts of distinctive professional areas awards the prize for exclusive vanguard design. Till the point of time of award there will be extensive comparison, discussion and appraisal of submitted nominations. The presentation of award will take place in Frankfurt am Main during the international fair Ambiente in February 2016.

Source of photographs: schöne räume | architektur innenarchitektur
Photographer of GDC_KreativLAB: Oliver Tamagnini

Press contact

schöne räume | architektur innenarchitektur
Lisa K. Reuter
Liebfrauenberg 37
60313 Frankfurt am Main
Germany
Phone: +49 69 874 033 306
l.reuter@schoene-raeume.de